PLO's

Content competency

- To acquire relevant knowledge with respect to core and elective courses
- To know select and use teaching methods and techniques
- To acquire necessary competencies and skill for organising learning experiences

Pedagogical competency and skills:

- To innovate and experiment classroom practices
- To reflect on what is taught and planned

Professional ethics

- To imbibe and uphold qualities of a good teacher
- To be just and impartial
- To develop professional attitude, to help demonstrate commitment to values such as ethics loyalty, love, service, equality and excellence.

Higher order thinking skills and effective communications

- To build up confidence and promote abilities to communicate effectively
- To present once own views and opinions effectively
- To collaborate with parents and community for the betterment of students

Environmental awareness

- Sensitize all issues of ecology
- Take precautionary steps in protecting the environment

Teamwork

- To work as a member or leader in divers teams and in multi disciplinary settings
- To follow the principles of collaborative learning cooperative learning and team teaching.